Dear Rowan and Shane:

It seems unbelievable that almost two weeks have passed since the closing of The Queen of Bingo at Totem Pole and one of the reasons is that folks are still talking about what a wonderful evening of theatre you brought to The Playhouse. You could most certainly tell by the response how welcoming our audiences were to your brand of magic and the fact that, after the fact, Bingo is still on so many minds, lets us all know that we had a hit on our hands.

Many thanks for bringing your own special brand of theatrical silliness and giddiness to Totem Pole. I cannot imagine anyone else bringing Sis and Babe to life other than you two fine actors. The incredible feeling of spontaneity added to the fun of the evening and the nightly interactive bingo game with the audience was a treat every time around.

Thanks too not only for your fine on stage work and blending beautifully with the theatre staff, but also for being such ambassadors for the Playhouse as you strengthened community relations. Along with being the diligent actors you are, you are a self-contained marketing firm for both the show and the venue.

It was a treat to play The Caller for each performance and I'm so glad I could be involved.

Hope you are both well and that you have opportunity to bring Sis and Babe to life many times more. There are so many folks who need to meet the dynamic duo.

Best wishes,

To whom it may concern:

On Friday April 18, 2008, "The Queen of Bingo" was performed on our premises as part of a fundraising effort to put a new roof on the Church. Hundreds of tickets were sold and it was very profitable for our parish.

The cast and crew, led by producer Shane Partlow, were courteous and professional while interacting with our volunteers who helped to plan the event. The show was very entertaining and was well received by all who were in attendance. It was humorous, endearing, and comically irreverent at times.

I highly recommend "The Queen of Bingo" to any Church looking to raise money while providing both a memorable and enjoyable experience for those who purchase a ticket. Please feel free to contact me at the number in the letterhead if you would like more information.

Sincerely,

Rev. Timothy E. MacDonald
Pastor
